

LIVE PERFORMANCE INSTRUCTION

Live Performance Instruction classes and lessons teach students the finer points of performing live in music and the arts. From DJing, to rock bands, to children shows, to emceeing and so much more.

Live Performance Instruction guides students towards giving their best public performances. In class, students will cover techniques, presentation, stage presence, image practicing, rehearsing setlists, production and so much more.

Live Performance Instruction is a great way to enhance any music and/or art lesson track where performing live is part of the experience.
